

Immigration Legal Services for Afghan Arrivals (ILSAA)

We help Eligible Afghan Arrivals access the services you need to navigate the U.S. legal immigration system.

Eligible Afghan Arrivals are:

- Afghan humanitarian parolees
- Unaccompanied minors
- Other Afghans with eligible status as defined in ORR Policy Letter 22-01, such as Special Immigrant Visa holders, Special Immigrants with Conditional Permanent Resident status, refugees, asylees, and more.

The journey of an Afghan parolee can be complicated and facing the United States legal immigration system without adequate legal support can be confusing. We can help!

Access Legal Services

- We provide immigration legal services for Eligible Afghan Arrivals at no cost.
- We support pathways to permanent residency, family reunification, Temporary Protected Status (TPS), and more.
- We provide translation and interpretation services, including Dari and Pashto.
- Once your request for legal assistance is received, we will match you with a legal service provider that fits your needs.
- Visit our website to access all resources and more.

Building Capacity to Better Serve Afghan Arrivals

We also provide trainings, resources, and ongoing support to legal service providers across the U.S. so that they can better serve Afghan arrivals.

Email ILSAAinfo@icf.com with your name, phone number, and primary language and an ILSAA team member will respond to your message. You can also visit our website: <https://ilsaa.acf.hhs.gov/>